ENHANCING LIVES THROUGH DESIGN

Product Spotlight: SARTUS

MandiCasa's latest line of luxury Italian bathrooms features an unprecedented collection of versatile modular elements to meet the needs of contemporary living.

Sartus bathroom cabinets in Verde Petrolio matte lacquer with frame in Creta oak wood.

In Sartus, every decorative detail is also a core functional element. This starts with the oak wood frame, which defines the contours of the cabinets while serving as a minimalist handle.

Floating cabinet in Grès Meteora Gris bocciardato with frame and drawers in Avena oak wood. Drappers bookcase and storage system.

Floating vanities, floor-standing cabinets, open and closed storage units, and cabinets with legs combine with elegant sinks, mirrors, and accessories. The result are unique compositions that bring the bathroom closer to other living spaces.

Another multifaceted component of the Sartus bathroom line is the tubular metal bar. It serves as the support structure for the bookcase and storage system, customizable to include shelves and cabinets in wall or freestanding units.

Cabinets and shelves in Tasso oak wood. Sink and top in Grès Jasper.

The design of the system – at once simple and sophisticated - makes it suitable for the bathroom as well as other areas of the home.

Used on its own attached to the wall, the metal bar becomes a multi-purpose rail accessorized with towel holders, shelves, and trays for a variety of objects.

Floating cabinet in White matte lacquer and Naturale oak wood. Storage system with metal bars and shelves and cabinets in Naturale oak wood. Smile mirror backlit along the perimeter.

The range of Sartus finishes brings together 7 types of oak woods with metals, cement, ceramic, melamines, and lacquers in interesting contrasts of colors and textures.

The sinks - which can be freestanding, integrated, or over the counter - come in Teknorit, Piasentina stone, ceramic or marble.

Right: Over-the-counter sink with matching top in Grès Meteora Gris bocciardato.
