Dario Snaidero and MandiCasa bring a Made in Italy
Luxury collection to South Florida Homes

by MandiCasa

Developed by entrepreneur Dario Snaidero, MandiCasa is a curated collection of Made-in-Italy designs for luxury homes. It brings together Mr. Snaidero's Italian heritage and the 45+ years of experience serving the American market that have made him and his team a leading player in the country's luxury design industry.

The brand includes modern kitchens, bathrooms, closets, and interior doors which can now be seen at the MandiCasa Miami showroom, located at 4110 Ponce de Leon Blvd. in Coral Gables.

All products are made by premium manufacturers in the Northeast of Italy, where Dario is from and maintains a deep network of trusted partnerships - all sharing in his vision to offer the highest standards of craftsmanship and service.

The collection provides a wide range of possibilities for customization, from high-performance exclusive finishes to state-of-the-art storage solutions.

MandiCasa's Miami design team are at your service, managing each project from beginning to end, to help you elevate your home to new levels of elegance and functionality.
